Kalorien	261 kcal
Proteine	9 g
Fette	5 g
Kohlenhydrate	42 g
Ballaststoffe	7 g

At the bottom of the interface, there is a prominent green button labeled 'Tracken' with a white plus sign, which is highlighted by a yellow circle.
